

Collaborative Solutions Institute, Inc. (CSI) is seeking nominations for the

2011 Extraordinary/Ordinary Man of the Year Award

This award is an opportunity to celebrate men who make a positive impact on others' lives and their community through everyday actions in their neighborhoods, their faith communities, schools, social service agencies or through their voluntary service to others. Most men operate largely "under the radar" doing their good deeds, sharing their time and treasure quietly and selflessly.

CSI would like to show appreciation for their efforts and kindness. Please consider nominating an Extraordinary Ordinary man you know. Nominations are due no later than Friday, September 16, 2011.

Awards will be presented at a dinner on October 6, 2011 at 6 p.m.
at the Holiday Inn and Suites, Bloomington.

CSI is a non-profit organization devoted to providing specialized counseling solutions to families and individuals struggling with a variety of physical and emotional issues. The counselors are really teachers at heart working as a team to problem solve, develop action plans, and determine appropriate accommodations for client programs such as Crisis/Coping Skills, Planning for the Future, Anger Management, Conflict Resolution, Relationship Building, Domestic Violence Assessment, Victim/Offender Conferences and many others involving families, individuals, and groups. The work is important, challenging, and very often serves those who have limited access to professional help.
