Dear Supporter,

For CSI (Collaborative Solutions Institute), the mission of providing building blocks for civility in relationships began in 1993. Many of McLean County's most challenging counseling and advising situations are referred to CSI. Anger management, school related concerns, family violence, and mental health resolutions for youth and adults are community issues addressed each day by CSI's caring professionals. Regardless of the need, clients always have access to the personal attention that is the cornerstone in honoring our mission.

Your participation in our first ever fund raiser, celebrating the Extraordinary/Ordinary man, will enable us to continue to effectively serve a growing number of clients.

Please consider attending this year's inaugural event honoring men serving others on October 6, 2011 at the Holiday Inn and Suites in Bloomington, featuring an awards ceremony and keynote speaker Willie Brown. In a society where there is great need for Extraordinary/Ordinary men to be involved in our homes and schools and connected with our youth and to our neighborhoods, CSI wants to recognize these Extraordinary/Ordinary men for making life better for all in the community.

With your help we can continue the vital work CSI provides to foster a civil and productive community. Please share this letter with family, friends, and colleagues and consider nominating your own Extraordinary/Ordinary man for his exceptional service to the community. Nomination forms can be found at the CSI website www.collaborativesolutions.org.

CSI is a 501(c)3 organization and your contribution is tax deductible according to the IRS rules. The event tickets are $50 which includes your dinner. Please contact us at cgaines@collaborativesolutions.org or jkrueger@integrityts.com for more information on how you can help us celebrate the Extraordinary/Ordinary men in our community.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Gaines
